

Concept Question 12-7: What purpose does the partial-fraction-expansion method serve?

The partial fraction expansion method facilitates transforming $\mathbf{F}(s)$ to the time domain. It is used to convert the expression for $\mathbf{F}(s)$ into a sum of terms, each of which can be easily transformed back to the time domain.