

Concept Question 9-20: What does a mixer do?

A mixer is a nonlinear device that converts the frequency of the signal from the carrier frequency f_c down to a lower intermediate frequency f_{IF} , while preserving the amplitude of the signal waveform.